

"PRAX OFF" with top-class programme

An era is coming to an end.

After many years of existence, the traditional Café Praxmair will close its doors in mid-September 2023. The end of an era characterised by warm hospitality and delicious coffee and pastry creations.

To make this farewell a little easier and to duly celebrate the many wonderful moments experienced at Café Praxmair, special events are planned. Here is an overview of the upcoming evenings:

:: Sunday, 3 September

The stage belongs to "The Fancy Blues Band", whose musical talent will ensure an atmospheric evening.

:: Thursday, 7 September

An evening of humorous entertainment awaits guests with cabaret artists Gloggi & Schicho and Ludwig Müller.

:: Friday, 8 September

The cabaret duo Clemens Maria Schreiner and Irmgard Knef promise an evening of laughter and entertainment.

:: Saturday, 9 September

Cabaret fans should not miss this evening when Nessi Tausendschön & William Mackenzie and Christoph & Lollo take to the stage.

:: Sunday, 10 September

The farewell evening is a special highlight with cabaret by Christof Spörk & the Fratelli Bros.

All events start at 20:00 and take place at Café Praxmair in Kitzbühel's Vorderstadt. This is an opportunity for guests, friends and loyal customers to say a fitting farewell to this popular meeting place and relive the memories of the wonderful times.
