

Trattenbachalm

Enjoy typical local home-cooked dishes such as „Tiroler Gröstl“, „Kasspatzl“ or „Pressknödel“ while taking in the unique views of the peaks of the Kleiner Rettenstein.

total walking time	2:45 h	distance	5,4 km	difficulty	average
altitude meters uphill	600 m	highest point	1623 m
destination point:	Waldwirt car park
road quality:	Gravel path
route typ:	family tour

Altitude profile

Description

Our starting point is Jochberger Wald at the Waldwirt car park, which is available free of charge. We cross the main road and follow the hiking trail towards Trattenbachalm, which leads us up to the Trattenbachalm mostly via an alpine road. Halfway up the ascent, the various peaks of the Kleiner Rettenstein with its highest elevation of 2,217 m become visible. After that, we can already see our destination, the Trattenbachalm, from afar. The rustic hut allows us to unwind, and you simply cannot miss out on typical local dishes such as „Tiroler Gröstl“, „Kasspatzl“ or „Pressknödel“. Refreshed and impressed by the magnificent mountain landscape, we begin our return journey along the same path we took on the way up.

Route

Jochbergwald - direction Pass Thurn - Trattenbachalm

equipment

weather-appropriate clothing, suitable footwear

arrival

Stop Jochbergwald bus stop

downloads

GPX FILE

INTERACTIVE MAP

